Our estimated value of the securities on the pricing date, based on our internal pricing models, is expected to be between $951.40 and $971.40 per security. The estimated value is expected to be less than the initial issue price of the securities. See "Additional Information Regarding Our Estimated Value of the Securities" in the accompanying pricing supplement.

U.K. Bail-in Power Acknowledgment:

Notwithstanding and to the exclusion of any other term of the securities or any other agreements, arrangements or understandings between Barclays Bank PLC and any holder or beneficial owner of the securities (or the trustee on behalf of the holders of the securities), by acquiring the securities, each holder and beneficial owner of the securities acknowledges, accepts, agrees to be bound by and consents to the exercise of, any U.K. Bail-in Power by the relevant U.K. resolution authority.

The Underlier

For more information about the underlier, including historical performance information, see the accompanying pricing supplement.

Risk Factors

An investment in the securities involves significant risks. We urge you to consult your investment, legal, tax, accounting and other advisors before you invest in the securities. Some of the risks that apply to an investment in the securities are summarized below, but we urge you to read the more detailed explanation of risks relating to the securities generally in the “Risk Factors” sections in the accompanying pricing supplement and the prospectus supplement. You should not purchase the securities unless you understand and can bear the risks of investing in the securities.

Risks Relating to the Securities Generally

- The securities do not guarantee the return of any principal.
- You will not receive any contingent quarterly payment for any quarterly period where the closing price of the underlier on the applicable determination date is less than the downside threshold level.
- You will not participate in any appreciation in the value of the underlier.
- The securities are subject to early redemption risk.
- Any payment on the securities will be determined based on the closing prices of the underlier on the dates specified.
- Contingent repayment of principal applies only at maturity or upon any automatic early redemption.
- The securities are subject to volatility risk.
- Investing in the securities is not equivalent to investing in the underlier.
- Significant aspects of the tax treatment of the securities are uncertain.

Risks Relating to the Issuer

- Any payments on the securities are subject to issuer credit risk.
- You may lose some or all of your investment if any U.K. Bail-in Power is exercised by the relevant U.K. resolution authority.

Risks Relating to the Underlier

- The issuer of the underlier is not an affiliate of ours, is not involved with this offering in any way, and has no obligation to consider your interests in taking any corporate actions that might affect the value of the securities.
- The price of the underlier can rise or fall sharply due to factors specific to the underlier and its issuer.
- Anti-dilution protection is limited, and the calculation agent has discretion to make anti-dilution adjustments.

- Reorganization or other events could adversely affect the value of the securities or result in the securities being accelerated.
- Governmental legislative or regulatory actions, such as sanctions, could adversely affect your investment in the securities.

Risks Relating to Conflicts of Interest

- We may engage in business with or involving the issuer of the underlier without regard to your interests.
- Hedging and trading activity by the issuer and its affiliates could potentially adversely affect the value of the securities.
- We and our affiliates, and any dealer participating in the distribution of the securities, may engage in various activities or make determinations that could materially affect your securities in various ways and create conflicts of interest.

Risks Relating to the Estimated Value of the Securities and the Secondary Market

- The securities will not be listed on any securities exchange, and secondary trading may be limited.
- The market price of the securities will be influenced by many unpredictable factors.
- The estimated value of your securities is expected to be lower than the initial issue price of your securities.
- The estimated value of your securities might be lower if such estimated value were based on the levels at which our debt securities trade in the secondary market.
- The estimated value of the securities is based on our internal pricing models, which may prove to be inaccurate and may be different from the pricing models of other financial institutions.
- The estimated value of your securities is not a prediction of the prices at which you may sell your securities in the secondary market, if any, and such secondary market prices, if any, will likely be lower than the initial issue price of your securities and may be lower than the estimated value of your securities.
- The temporary price at which we may initially buy the securities in the secondary market and the value we may initially use for customer account statements, if we provide any customer account statements at all, may not be indicative of future prices of your securities.

Tax Considerations

You should review carefully the section entitled “Additional Information about the Securities—Tax considerations” in the accompanying pricing supplement.

In the event that any of the terms set forth or defined in this document conflict with the terms or defined terms set forth in the accompanying pricing supplement, the terms or defined terms set forth in the accompanying pricing supplement will control.
